DEAN LAKEY ANNOUNCED AS TJ WIES CONTRACTING'S NEW DIRECTOR OF PRECONSTRUCTION

ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI, February 14, 2018 — TJ Wies Contracting, Inc. is happy to announce the promotion of Dean Lakey to Director of Preconstruction. Dean brings thirty years of experience to the role, spending the last eleven years at TJ Wies Contracting, where he has held positions of Estimator, Manager of Plastering Division, and most recently Senior Estimator.

As Director of Preconstruction, Dean joins the six-person TJ Wies Contracting Leadership Team. Other members include, Tim Wies – President, Jeff Dreisewerd – Director of Operations, Chris Eberlin – Director of Construction, Becky Raike – Director of Finance, and Cameron Wies – Estimator.

Dean and his Estimating/Preconstruction team will continue to bring consistent pricing, quality proposals, and creative solutions to customer projects. TJ Wies Contracting will also continue providing competitively-priced, quality construction that is completed on time.

TJ Wies is pleased to welcome Dean to his new role.
